DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Tom Lohr House is located on the north side of Tom Lohr Road, just west of Turkey Neck Road. The house is set back from the road and is surrounded by trees.

The house is a two-story dwelling with a cross gambrel roof and a symmetrical six-bay facade. The facade points south and is covered with a one-story, flat-roofed porch. The ground slopes down from east to west, creating a full basement on the west elevation. The basement is covered with a one-story, hipped-roofed porch. A one-story, hipped-roofed porch covers a rear door on the north elevation.

The house rests on a poured concrete foundation and is covered with asbestos shingles. The windows are one over one sash with drip mouldings and plain board surrounds. The facade exhibits two doors, each with a window on either side. The roof is covered with asphalt shingles.

The house has two interior brick stove chimneys, one on the north-west corner and one at the center of the south elevation. The facade porch has turned posts, as does the porch on the west elevation. The interior arrangement of the house is unknown.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The house was built for Peter J. Lohr, father of Tom Lohr, and was constructed by a carpenter from Swanton. Lohr had the roof copied from a house on 3rd Street in Oakland and bought the doors and windows from William T. Sigler's store in Piedmont, West Virginia.
